Dear Dharma Friends,

Since our founder and resident teacher Guo Gu began teaching the Dharma in Tallahassee in 2009, Tallahassee Chan Center (TCC) has flourished to the point where we are outgrowing our current rented space. Tallahassee Chan Center, a branch of Dharma Drum Mountain Buddhist Association founded by Master Sheng Yen, is one of the most active Chan groups in the West geared toward English speakers and the only Chan community in the south of the United States.

In order to continue serving the increasing number of people attracted to the Dharma, we have begun raising funds to purchase a building that will provide a stable space for our weekly sittings, workshops, longer retreats, and other activities.

We ask for your support to help us reach this goal. Whatever contribution you can make will help us collectively make the Dharma available to the wider community. Please fill out the attached envelope for your contribution and mail it. Contributions to Tallahassee Chan Center (TCC) may be tax-deductible on your federal income tax form; consult your tax professional. May your generosity bring you health, merit, and happiness.

Thank you,

Tallahassee Chan Center
